

*A Unique Valentine Gift in Four-Part Harmony
Available February 12, 13 and 14, 2010*

Quartets from Cascade Chorus will blanket the Eugene-Springfield area to surprise Valentines at home, at work, at school, even that romantic dinner for two.

A quartet will serenade your special Valentine with two timeless love songs in classic four-part, a capella harmony. We will also present:

- a bouquet of flowers
- a small heart shaped box of chocolates
- a Valentines card with your personal message inside

We charge only $50 for this memorable Valentine gift. We accept VISA, MasterCard and Discover, checks and plain old cash.

Just give us a call at 1-866-979-7464 and we will gather the information we need to make your Sweethearts day.

Our number is toll-free and all people answering the phones are local. As you can imagine the phones can get very busy. If you are asked to leave a message know we will get back to you very quickly. Every call will receive our close personal attention.

If you do have to leave a message, be sure you leave a number where we can call you back without spoiling that Valentine surprise.
